The Honorary Editor

The Honorary Editor is a member of the Council of the Royal Society of Canada.

Duties:
1. The Honorary Editor is responsible to the Council of the Society for all Society publications, print or electronic, including all Academy publications, and submits an annual report to the Council for the Annual Business Meeting of the Society.
2. The Honorary Editor chairs the RSC Standing Committee on Communications, which is composed of the Academy Editor for each of the three Academies; one Associate Editor (Anglophone); one Associate Editor (Francophone); and one designate of the Council.
3. The Honorary Editor will be responsible for implementing the vision of the Strategic Communications Review, currently in progress under the leadership of Jonathan Lomas, FRSC.

Process:
1. Fellows are invited, prior to April 1, to submit the names of potential candidates to the Secretariat (dgilmour@rsc-src.ca) for this position. Fellows putting names forward are invited to provide a rationale for their suggestion.
2. Once the deadline for the making of such suggestions has passed, all names suggested will be forwarded to the President and the Council.
3. The President shall then take whatever steps deemed appropriate (for example, informal consultations with members of Council and previous incumbents of the position, discussions with potential candidates, etc.) to determine candidates for the positions and shall bring recommendations to Council or Executive Committee, which shall normally confirm the recommendation of the President.
