2019 RSC Symposium – Science, Trust and Society: Inclusive Culture Under Siege

Fairmont Château Laurier | Ballroom

Today more than ever, experts have a crucial role to play in fostering openness, expanding critical thinking and enabling citizens to make the vital distinction between facts and opinions.

The 2019 RSC Ottawa Symposium will bring together researchers, government and business leaders and artists, among others, to demonstrate the ways in which they are working together to re-establish and expand a relationship of trust with citizens and protect aspirations of inclusive culture threatened by populism.

4:00 pm - 5:30 pm

Senate of Canada Tour (Ottawa's old train station)

Senate Building

Canada's Upper Chamber has a temporary new home! Come explore the Senate on the grounds of the old train station in downtown Ottawa while Parliament's Centre Block undergoes its first complete overhaul since the building opened in 1920.

Please note:

- Due to parliamentary activity, access to the buildings cannot be guaranteed and tour schedules are subject to change without notice.
 - All visitors are required to go through security scanning when entering the buildings.
 - Only one (1) bag smaller than 35.5 cm x 30.5 cm x 19 cm (14" x 12" x 7.5") is permitted per visitor.
