

The Royal Society of Canada and RSC Prairies-North presents:

2019 RSC PRAIRIES-NORTH LAUNCH EVENT

July 4, 2019, 1:00 pm – 7:00 pm

University of Saskatchewan Club, 101 Administration Place
Saskatoon, Saskatchewan

The Energy-Water-Food Nexus

Panelists:

Food

David Natcher | Director, Indigenous Land Management Institute, U. Saskatchewan
David Schneider | Professor, Global Institute for Food Security, U. Saskatchewan

Energy

1:00pm

Jenna Gall | Community Energy Project Manager, First Nations Power Authority
Greg Peolzer | Professor, School of Environment and Sustainability, U. Saskatchewan

Water

Jeffrey McDonnell | Associate Director, Global Institute for Water Security, U. Saskatchewan
Emily Eaton | Associate Professor, University of Regina

4:00pm

RSC Prairies-North Opening Remarks and Reception

RSC Prairies-North Lightning Talks

The Big Unanswered Question Relating to Monarch Migration

Jeremy McNeil | President Elect RSC, Professor, Chemical and Behavioural Ecology, Western U.

Indigenous Living Scholarship

Margaret Kovach | Professor, Educational Foundations, U. Saskatchewan.

Confederation and Voter Competence

Raymond Blake | Professor, History of Canada, U. Regina.

4:50pm

Historical Reflections on the Psychedelic Renaissance

Erika Dyck | Professor, History of Medicine, U. Saskatchewan.

Visualizing toxic elements with synchrotron X-rays

Ingrid Pickering | U. Saskatchewan

The Spectrum of Community-engaged Scholarship

Keith Carlson | Professor, Indigenous and Community-engaged History, U. Saskatchewan.

Noojimo Mikana (A Healing Path): Breaking the Barriers

Carrie Bourassa | Director, Institute of Indigenous Peoples Health, CIHR

5:45pm

University of Saskatchewan Reception sponsored by the President |
Welcoming remarks from Darcy Marciniuk, Associate Vice President Research

7:00pm

Event Concludes