

RSC Quebec

Presentation of RSC new Fellows and College Members & Science and Society in an era of pluralism

April 18th, 10:00am-3:30pm followed by a reception
M415, University of Montreal (under the tower)

The President of the Royal Society of Canada, the Presidents of the three academies and the President of the College of New Scholars are delighted to invite you to the Presentation of New RSC Fellows, College Members and Awards Winners from the RSC Quebec, that will take place at the University of Montreal on Thursday April 18th, 2019, at 10:00am. Following the presentation and the lunch, a discussion about researchers' efforts to actively deepen the links between science and society will be launched. This dimension builds on the work undertaken by the RSC and the G7 Academies with their 2018 Statements about the Arctic and Our Digital Future as major scientific challenges. Speakers come from a variety of disciplinary fields and share a common desire to bring science and society together.

10:00am	Opening remarks	Jean Grondin
10:10am	Welcome	Chad Gaffield, President, RSC
10:15am	Presentation of RSC New Fellows and College Members	Brief reception speeches will be given by Julie Hlavacek-Larrondo, Université de Montréal (RSC College member) Gilles Routhier, Université Laval (Académie I) Jean-Philippe Warren, Université Concordia (Académie II) Samy Suissa, Université McGill (Academy III)
12:00pm	Lunch
1:30pm	Science and Society in an Era of Pluralism	Moderator: Chad Gaffield Yoshua Bengio, FRSC, University of Montreal Océane Jasor, Concordia University Michel Jébrak, Université du Québec à Montréal
3:00pm	Closing remarks	Rémi Quirion, Chief Scientist of Québec Chad Gaffield

The event will be followed by a reception.